Dear Sir:

We have received your order for a Choate Medal. Do you desire a bronze or silver copy? I beg to advise that it would be ten days before we could promise delivery.

Trusting that we may hear from you shortly, I am,

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

My apologies for troubling you to write to me about the Choate medal.

I find that I already have it. You must put this down

to defective memory
which comes with approaching 70

Sincerely
Thos. Marbury
